SUMMARY OF INSPECTION FINDINGS FOR ADULT SERVICES

1. PURPOSE OF REPORT

- 1.1 The purpose of this report is to inform South Ayrshire Cabinet of the outcome of a range of inspections throughout 2023.

2. RECOMMENDATION

2.1 It is recommended that the Integration Joint Board

Note the positive grades achieved during inspection across all in-house services during 2022-23.

3. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

- 3.1 The Care Inspectorate undertook and published eight separate inspections during 2023 across Adult Services:

- Joint inspection for services for adults in South Ayrshire
- Chalmers Road short breaks (Learning Disabilities)
- Nursery Court Day supports (Older People)
- Arran View day supports (Learning Disabilities)
- Hillcrest Residential Home (Older People)
- South Lodge Residential Home (Older People)
- Care at Home Service (Older People)
- Reablement Service (Older People)

- 3.2 The Care Inspectorate use a 6-point scale to evaluate quality where 1 is unsatisfactory and 6 is excellent.

- 3.3 Qualitative statements are provided to qualify the grading. As part of the inspection and report process, “recommendations” are made to support continuous improvement, and in some instances when significant and immediate improvements are required then “requirements” are stipulated and enforced.

4. REPORT

- 4.1 Grades across all eight of the service areas inspected in South Ayrshire ranged from 4 (good) to 5 (very good) (Tab.1):

Table 1: Summary of Care Inspectorate Grades and Findings

Service Area	Grades	Date	Statement
Adult Services	Good 4,4,4,4,4,	Mar 23	Most people experienced positive outcomes and had a positive experience of health and social care. Leadership was committed to change and improvement and there was good, trusting relationships at a senior level. There was clarity of purpose for individual leaders and senior managers.

Chalmers Rd	Good 5,4,	Mar 23	The health, wellbeing, care and support of people was very good. Care plans were very person centred. People were happy while at the service.
Nursery Court	Very Good 5,5,	Mar 23	A highly committed, skilled and passionate staff team achieved excellent outcomes for people by providing flexible and enabling person-centred support that was compassionate, inclusive and stimulating. A very proactive and skilled leadership team drove very good standards of practice and continuous innovation.
Arran View	Good 5,4,	Jun 23	People were supported by friendly, caring staff. There was a wide range of activities for people to take part in.
Hillcrest	Very Good 5,5,	Oct 23	Management and staff work well with external health professionals, enhancing the health and wellbeing of people. Staff were highly motivated, well trained and focussed on achieving good outcomes for people.
South Lodge	Good 4,4,	Aug 23	Management and staff knew each service user well and were very good at building positive relationships with people and their families. Staff were highly motivated and focussed on achieving good outcomes for people.
Reablement	Very Good 5,5,5,5,	Nov 23	There was very good communication between the staff in the team and sharing with other departments and organisations to work collaboratively towards shared goals. The service was being delivered by team of staff that were dedicated, caring and compassionate about the job they do.
Care at	Very	Dec	Good teams of care staff delivering

- 4.2 Each report has areas for improvement that are being progressed and overseen by the relevant manager. There were no requirements identified.
- 4.3 Overall the inspection outcomes were positive and benchmark positively against other partnerships, providing further evidence that Adult Services within South Ayrshire are providing broadly positive outcomes for people and are on an improving trajectory.
- 4.4 Strengths across all of the services are best summarised within the Joint inspection for services for adult's report (2023):
- Most people in South Ayrshire experienced positive outcomes from the delivery of health and care services. Generally, people had a positive experience of health and social care. This was especially the case when it came to engagement with staff.
  - Services on the whole worked well together. Some teams were integrated by design and process. Others worked in an integrated way through their approach and behaviour.
  - There were particular strengths in the approaches to early intervention and prevention. This activity was captured in robust strategic planning that set out to achieve clear and relevant goals.
  - Leadership was committed to change and improvement in South Ayrshire. There were good, trusting relationships at a senior level and there was clarity of purpose for individual leaders and senior managers
- 4.5 Leaders within the Health and Social Care Partnership have set the ambition to build on these strong foundations and through a culture of continuous and strategic improvement move our services from “Good to Great”.
