

Getting it right for every child (GIRFEC): e-learning resources

Who are they for?

E-learning for anyone providing services to the public, especially those likely to come in contact with babies, children, young people and/or their families.

What levels are they?

Two multi-agency modules at informed and skilled level.

Access the modules here!

Getting it right for every child informed level | Turas | Learn

Getting it right for every child skilled level | Turas | Learn

To access both modules, you will require a TURAS account. If you don't already have one, it is easy to register for a new account – Turas Sign up

We are delighted to announce the new GIRFEC e-learning resource is available on TURAS learn now!

Module 1 informed level:

This module is for anyone providing services to the public, especially those likely to come in contact with children, young people and/or their families. The module may also be helpful for others who wish to gain an understanding about Getting it right for every child.

Module 2 skilled level:

This module is for anyone likely to come in contact with babies, infants, children, young people and/or their families and carers, especially those working directly with them. The module may also be helpful for others who wish to gain more depth of understanding about Getting it right for every child.

For any queries about these resources please email:

WCYPF@nes.scot.nhs.uk