The CPC Lead Officer will

	discuss any concerns about potential CSE/CSA clients, alongside other concerning child presentations.					set up sessions before the next presentation of the plan with CPA's to discuss the risks and indicators of CSE to ensure YP and children are protected.
SES 2.07	Develop a robust recording process of return interviews where a child, young person or vulnerable adult has been missing to help identify abuse.		31-Mar-2022	✓		24-Jan-2022 Return Interviews are now tracked and recorded as part of the significant event protocol. The data obtained from return interviews and significant event forms is used to inform caring4u meetings which are multi agency and chaired by House Managers, Caring4u meetings ensure that young people are receiving the right support at the right time to progress their plans.
SES 2.08	Develop 'significant event' screening groups to analyse trends and plan to reduce risk to vulnerable groups.		31-Mar-2022	✓		24-Jan-2022 The data obtained from significant event forms is used to inform caring4u meetings which are multi agency and chaired by House Managers, Caring4u meetings ensure that young people are receiving the right support at the right time to progress their plans. This information contributes to safeguarding young people and helps manage and reduce the risk of harm.
SES 2.09	Ensure that young people's views are used for relevant training for practitioners which highlights the links between going missing and vulnerability to abuse.	Gary Hoey	31-Mar-2022	▶		18-Feb-2022 Children's Health Care and Justice Services have recently agreed to implement Mind of My Own, a mechanism for gathering children's views. Information gathered can be used to ensure appropriate training. The Missing Person's Protocol and the requirement for return interviews will also contribute to strengthening the links between children going missing and vulnerability to abuse. This is also covered extensively in the CSE training.
SES 2.10	Market the Runaway and Say Something helpline services directly to people in South Ayrshire to ensure that children, young people and vulnerable adults are supported when they are thinking of going missing or need help to stay safe.
